

Coach – Please hand this out to your players Fresh-Seniors. This is a great opportunity for them to get seen by college scouts. This program has been running nationwide since 2006.
Sincerely,

Jerry Howard, Director

Colorado/Wyoming displays its best volleyball players at the National Volleyball Showcase in the Rocky Mountain region. The event is a skill assessment of the volleyball player's athletic and volleyball skills. The players will also go through position specific testing that college coaches are looking for. During the season, it's difficult for college coaches to get out to matches. The showcase is a great way to get playing time and information in front of a college coach. This event is run by High school coaches for athletes and college coaches.
